VIP—Vision in Practice Board Training

Vision in Practice is a service that provides sessions with park boards for the purpose of determining a park facility’s values, mission, vision & goals, board development, stakeholder meetings, and defining a design charette (brainstorming) process. This service assists park boards that are struggling to find common ground, needing to define their unique niche, and/or wanting to begin the planning process.

Our Associates:

- Collectively have over 100 years of management experiences
- Each have university-level teaching experience
- Earned national reputations designing and leading management schools at the Oglebay National Training Center at Oglebay Resort in Wheeling, West Virginia
- Have led dozens of successful staff and board training workshops and retreats for agencies throughout the United States

Let Us Help Your Park Board:

- Define the planning process
- Determine stakeholder meetings
- Develop a park’s unique niche
- Create conceptual development
- Establish common ground among board members
- Define board versus director roles

Allow ReCreate Park Planning Group to:

- Bring a fresh perspective to your organization
- Assist in establishing and prioritizing your objectives and expected outcomes to focus on the issues that make a difference
- Encourage professional interaction among all group members and ensure active participation by all attendees
- Facilitate breakout sessions
- Deliver a comprehensive After Action Report, which summarizes discussion points and specifies recommendations and timelines
