

Testimonials:

The info in the course was important and is a consistent concept that comes up in our daily work life. That being said, I do not think this class should be taught after lunch. This is a great early morning topic to really get participation motivated. I like that he used video clips, and other examples I liked the pace of his presentation and his tone.

I enjoyed this class. Brad is a fun instructor and makes learning easier.

Brad did a great job and gave me a lot to think about. I need to work on some things with my style. I will need some of these books when I return home. Very inspiring info. Thanks!

Eye opening discussion. Gave me lots to think about. I find it very challenging to move from being a manager to a leader.

Honest and straightforward instruction

Sad to see the better teachers (Brad) leaving
